

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3444 – HB 3550

February 22, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission to create a one-year, one-time-only permit exempting persons from hunter education requirements if the person has all other required licenses and permits and is accompanied by a licensed adult who is hunter-education-certified or otherwise exempt by law. The Commission is authorized to charge a fee for such a permit.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues – Less than $10,000/Wildlife Resources Fund

Increase State Expenditures – Less than $10,000/Wildlife Resources Fund

Assumptions:

- Approximately 1,000 permits issued annually at a price of approximately $5 each.
- Administrative costs to create and issue such permits would be less than $10,000.
